

Agreement Type (description)	Unit Responsible/Process--Summary	Reviewers--Summary	Signatory--Summary
Dual degree (internal/external agreements between Columbia and partner school for students participating in educational programs leading to two degrees. Some dual degree agreements may require a concurrent program proposal through APAS.)	Office of the Provost (Academic Programs) -- (through DARCI; and APAS if necessary)	OGC SFS	Provost
Joint degree (agreement in which there is a mutually determined curriculum involving faculty from Columbia and an external partner institution. Students receive one or two degrees, issued jointly from Columbia and from the partner (domestic or international). New joint degree agreements require a concurrent program proposal through APAS and review/approval by NYSED.)	Office of the Provost (Academic Program) -- (through DARCI; APAS)	OGC SFS SEC (if necessary) NYSED (if necessary)	Provost
Educational Handshake or MOU ('agree to agree' non-binding agreement between Columbia and external educational partner where both express an interest in future collaborations, but there are no specific projects or outcomes.)	Office of the Provost (Academic Programs) -- (through DARCI)	OGC Office of the Provost (Academic Programs)	Provost
Student exchange/visiting student (agreement between Columbia and external partner for undergraduate and graduate students traveling bi-directionally OR unidirectionally between universities, where credits are earned by students at one or both institutions.)	Office of the Provost (Academic Programs) -- (through DARCI)	OGC SFS	Provost
Study Abroad (institutional level agreement in which Columbia students earn credits from another institution.) NOTE: Study Abroad programs where Columbia students earn Columbia credits (taught by Columbia faculty through Columbia COI approved courses) do not need provostial reviewed, institution level agreements.	Office of the Provost (Academic Programs) -- (through DARCI)	OGC SFS	Provost
Faculty research/exchange (agreements between Columbia and an external partner detailing a faculty research, exchange or visiting scholar agreement.)	Office of the Provost (Communications and Engagement)	OGC Office of the Provost (Academic Appointments) SPA (if research related)	Provost
Secondments (Employee secondments (e.g. a short-term contract to work for a federal agency; incoming secondment)	Office of the Provost (Communications and Engagement)	OGC Office of the Provost (Academic Appointments) SPA (if research related)	Provost
Institution-level affiliations and pledges (agreements between Columbia and an external partner or organization detailing an affiliation or pledge between the parties, e.g. Erasmus+, Global Centers, CWP.)	Office of the Provost (Communications and Engagement)	OGC Public Affairs (if risk management review needed) Development (if necessary) Trustees (if necessary) SPA (if research related)	Provost
MOUs (non-educational memorandum of understanding agreement between Columbia and external partner/entity, international governmental authority.)	Office of the Provost (Communications and Engagement)	OGC Public Affairs (if risk management review needed) SPA (if research related)	Provost
Online partnerships (agreements between Columbia and an OPM (2U, Coursera, EdX) or other partner that provides online services (enrollment marketing, MOOC, etc.)	Office of the Provost (Teaching, Learning, and Innovation)	Office of the Provost (Teaching, Learning, and Innovation) OGC Procurement (if necessary) Office of the Provost (Academic Programs) -- (if credit-bearing) SFS (if credit-bearing)	Dean (if non-credit) Provost (if credit-bearing)
Practica/internships/clinical placements (agreements between Columbia school and an internal/external partner regarding student practicum, internships, or clinical placements. These agreements are handled at the school-level and do not require provostial review.)	School	OGC (if necessary)	Dean
Sub-awards to develop educational content (agreements between Columbia and an external partner to develop, but not deliver, educational content.)	School	OGC (if necessary)	Dean
Individual-level/one-time/specific (individual level agreement with an external partner detailing a one-time specific research or educational initiative by a single student or faculty.)	School	OGC SFS	Dean
Continuing/executive education (school-developed programs that may have an agreement with an external partner, not credit-bearing, may offer professional credits (CLE), may offer a certificate of participation.)	School (although some schools submit through DARCI, SIPA, MSPH, SW)	OGC (if necessary) Office of the Provost (Academic Programs)	Dean
Space/building use (agreement between Columbia and internal/external party for use of space, e.g. chapel, conference rooms, classrooms.)	School/unit	OGC (if necessary)	Dean or head of unit
Research (agreements between Columbia and external partner that involve grant funding, sponsored projects, research projects developed from a handshake, etc.)	SPA	OGC SPA	